Report of the Committee on Resolutions.

We, the Committee on Resolutions, beg leave to submit the following recommendations:

1. We earnestly request the General Conference to prepare a suitable budget for every department of the Pentecostal Holiness Church.

2. We request the General Conference to take steps as are necessary to the publishing of a Pentecostal Holiness Church Hymnal.

3. We suggest that the Editor of The Pentecostal Holiness Advocate ask the ministers of the various Conferences to contribute a sermon weekly to The Advocate.

4. We further resolve that each pastor appoint an Advocate representative for each of his churches; the duties of this representative being to see that each member of the church is a constant subscriber, and that those outside the church have an opportunity to subscribe.

5. Be it further resolved that the Conference offer $5.00 as an award to the one who has the greatest number of Advocate subscriptions to his credit secured during the Conference year, the yearly subscriptions being the rule of average—four three-months subscriptions counting as one subscription and two six-months subscriptions as one subscription.

6. That there be a committee of three elected for the Conference Year known as The Advocate Committee, and it shall be the duty of this committee to receive the results of the activities of those soliciting Advocate subscriptions and announce the winner of the $5.00 award at the next Annual Conference.

7. We would urge our pastors and evangelists to advise our people about the type of reading matter they allow to enter their homes, and would further suggest that our pastors and evangelists encourage the people to subscribe to such literature as sold and circulated by our own Publishing House, especially subscribing to periodicals produced by our own editors and authors.

8. Whereas some of the leading scientists of the nations declare tobacco to be one of the most deadly poisons known to the human family if administered in adequate doses and the most destructive to both the moral and the physical if indulged as a habit, we earnestly request the General Conference to hand down a more comprehensible interpretation of the tobacco clause in our Discipline.

9. In view of the fact that some of our churches are doing practically nothing for our foreign mission program we recommend:

1. That our Superintendent be instructed by this Conference to look into the matter and make an effort to remedy this situation.

10. That the pastor of each church insist that his church make a monthly contribution to the cause of missions, that our evangelists present the cause of missions in each of their meetings.

Respectfully submitted,

Jas. F. Eppes,
W. T. Merritt,
M. D. Sellers.

Amendment to the report of the Committee on Resolutions adopted by the N. C. Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church at the 1936 session.

1. Whereas, authorities tell us that in the five-year course of Sunday School lessons which the Committee of the International Uniform Lessons have put out, they have in the past forty years only given us thirty-five per cent of the Scriptures, and believing that it is God's will for us to have the whole Bible taught in the Sunday Schools, we send this memorial to the General Conference, and request that it take whatever steps necessary to put out a course of graded lessons, which will include the whole Bible, and give lessons on the great doctrines of the same, for this we have pledged ourselves to pray.

2. That all our members be forbidden to attend the bathing beaches.

Minority Report of Committee on Resolutions.

Whereas the standard of modesty is so lowered among the American people, we offer the following for the General Rules of our Discipline:

1. That no girl or woman shall belong to the Pentecostal Holiness Church, who wear sleeveless dresses, and that their sleeves shall reach two-thirds from shoulder to wrist and that their skirts shall reach as low as half way from their knees to their ankles.

2. That no man or boy be allowed membership in the Pentecostal Holiness Church who enter the public with their arms bare or their lower limbs above their knees. That in no case shall he allow himself to be exposed to public view without being decently clothed in at least a top shirt and trousers.

M. D. Sellers.

Report of Committee on Memoirs.

We, your Committee on Memorials, submit the following report:

Inasmuch as our heavenly Father in His providence has, this year, taken from our midst our friend and brother, the Rev. J. E.

Elks, who has been a member of the N. C. Conference for the past ten years, we do submissively bow ourselves to His will. We have suffered a loss, nevertheless, we are confident that though he is absent from us, he is present with the Lord.

Knowing that the departure of our late Bro. Elks has brought grief, especially to the widow and immediate family, we recommend:

1. That we as a Conference extend our deep sympathy to the widow and immediate family.

2. That, to show our appreciation of the deceased, and sympathy to the bereaved family, a copy of this report be sent to the widow, supplemented by our prayer to the God of all comfort in her behalf.

J. A. Howard,
Wesley Noble,
W. L. Mayo.

Report of Committee on Sunday Schools.

The Sunday School is one of, if not, the best and most practical, channel through which to promote every phase of Christian activity in which the Pentecostal Holiness Church is engaged.

The study and teaching of God's Word is at once the most important part of Sunday School work.

Paul's exhortation, 2 Tim. 2: 15, Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth, should be deeply pondered and practiced by all Sunday School workers. A thorough knowledge of God's Word is a most necessary preparation for efficient service in the Sunday School.

Every pupil should possess a Bible, no matter how young they may be.

All teachers should use the best helps to the study of the Word obtainable.

To possess experimentally, and teach and apply the truth in a practical way, will result in the salvation of the pupils, as well as their training for Christian service.

Altar services should be far more frequent in our schools.

Why should we not work and pray for the salvation of the pupils, and expect God to save them during the session of the school.

A visiting Committee might help the school.

If some one would meet and welcome visitors it would probably increase attendance, and promote good fellowship, hospitality is a scriptural requirement.

Order and reverence are more than beautiful in the Sunday School.

The ministry and laity of the older people should take an active part with the children and young people in the Sunday School work as directed by the N. C. Conference.

We desperately need a course of Sunday School lessons, which will include the whole Bible, instead of only thirty-five per cent of the Scripture, as now given by the International Uniform Lesson Committee, and we invite all to pray that God may give this to us.

W. B. Godwin,
M. T. Felton,
James W. Butler.

Report of Committee on Education.

Since our Public School system is sadly neglecting the teaching of religion and morals according to the standard presented in the Bible, we feel that this responsibility is thrust upon the Christian Church everywhere. Therefore we submit the following recommendations:

1. That The Advocate and Youth's Leader be placed in all our homes, and our people be encouraged to read the Bible daily, and other good literature as much as possible.

2. That our church school at Franklin Springs be patronized, our Sunday Schools be expanded, and other kindred institutions be given our moral support.

3. That one-tenth of the tithes paid into the Conference Treasury be given to our church school.

4. That our ministers better prepare themselves by all means available, and when possible secure a good commentary such as Adam Clark's or Matthew Henry's, and a good Bible Dictionary.

I. H. Presley,
J. W. Berry,
O. T. Howard.

Report of Committee on Orphanage Work.

Inasmuch as the Falcon Orphanage has received the endorsement of this Conference from the time of organization, and has, in this sense, become the adopted institution of our church, we, your Committee, wish to again commend the work of this orphanage, and to recommend that all our organized groups within this Conference, as well as every individual member of our church give as liberal support to, and as full cooperation in the work of this orphanage as possible.

Due to the increased financial needs of this, the only orphanage work fostered and encouraged by this Conference, it is very necessary that we put forth extra efforts and make special offerings and pledges to this work immediately, in order that we may help bear the burdens of financing the program of enlargement of this orphanage work now under way. The old school Dormitory, which is just part of the Forty Thousand Dollar property recently transferred to the orphanage plant, is now being re-modeled for use as another orphanage home. The expense of this conversion of this building into an additional home for orphan children will run into thousands of dollars, but it will make room for thirty more children who need and demand the supreme efforts and sacrifices even of the pure and undefiled religion which we profess. We therefore recommend that all our churches, Sunday Schools, and Young People's Societies show the most generous consideration for, and give the greatest help possible to this, our orphanage work.

Respectfully submitted,

W. Eddie Morris,
E. W. Downing,
J. M. Weeks.

Report of Committee on Prohibition and Public Morals.

One of the great questions about which the apostles of the Church reasoned in Apostolic days, was Temperance; and the subject was associated with Righteousness and Judgment. There are many self-styled advocates and promoters of temperance today that deceive themselves and endeavor to deceive others with arguments that the best way to promote temperance is to repeal all prohibition laws and legalize the manufacture and sale of liquor under laws of control.

It would be just as reasonable to legalize stealing and highway robbery to promote property protection and honest living. The Ten Commandments, written by the finger of God, made every law against wrong uncompromisingly prohibitive, and there could not possibly be any sane liquor laws enacted in the interest of true temperance except such as have for their purpose the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of all intoxicating liquors.

The prohibition laws against liquor are the only laws that can be reasonably enforced, as liquor becomes an evil uncontrolable by the powers of man when man gives his consent to its existence, and use. But prohibition even half enforced, does more to promote temperance than any laws of control could ever accomplish.

Therefore we recommend that this N. C. Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church go on record as unalterably opposed to all laws that would legalize the distribution of intoxicating liquors to the people of our State and Nation.

We further recommend that all our preachers and teachers be outspoken against intoxicants of all kinds, and that they so condemn the evils perpetuated and encouraged by strong drink, and so thoroughly inform our people of its demoralizing effects in destroying our civilization, that our boys and girls may be fully warned against its use. And further that all our members, as well as all those who may come under the influences of our teachings and examples, may be encouraged to pray and vote for the prohibition of its manufacture and sale in our midst.

The attitude of all our people towards this monster evil, which is the promoter and encourager of every other kind of immorality, must be so fixed and active in their oppositions, that we may keep ourselves free from all individual responsibility for any of the multiplied uses and evils that follow in the wake of legalized liquors.

Respectfully submitted,

J. A. Culbreth,
T. M. Bizzell,
Mrs. R. L. Whitley.

Report of Committee on Pentecostal Young People's Societies.

Believing as we do that the youth of our church have a place to fill in the program of our movement, and that in the work of the Pentecostal Young Peoples' Society we have an organization through which to serve the present generation, we urge the membership of the North Carolina Conference to more seriously and sincerely give attention to this phase of the connectional interest of the church.

We are told that of 100 persons who are in Sunday School and Young Peoples' work at the age of six years, there will be only 35 of them in these church organizations at the age of 25 years. When the age of lawbreakers drops to between 10 and 20 years of age, crime conditions become a vital challenge to the church and our young people, for Christian youth furnish an opportunity and a foundation stone of society, and youth of consecrated lives should permeate its fold.

Therefore, we submit:

1. That our pastors should take these facts as they exist and devote a portion of their time and ministry toward the conservation of the consecrated Christian talent in our churches and endeavor to nourish and cherish it to mature growth for service to God and humanity, the Church of Jesus Christ and its related activities, by encouraging and fostering the organization of the P. Y. P. S. in each church as a supplement to what is being done in the Sunday School.

2. That a place be given in our Quarterly Conferences, at least once annually, for a special service in the interest of the P. Y. P. S.

3. That all our people be encouraged by the pastors to attend the young peoples' meetings and special services which may be conducted in the interest of Sunday Schools and the P. Y. P. S. by those whom the Conference elects to supervise and direct this work.

4. Speaking on behalf of the young people of this Conference, we pledge ourselves to work in behalf of a program of temperance and against the activities of the "wets" and those affiliated with them, and further that we stand firmly opposed to repeal of the State dry laws; and also that we pledge ourselves to select only that which is beneficial and helpful in reading matter, opposing unsound, unscriptural and unclean literature.

5. We bespeak for our Conference Sunday School and P. Y. P. S. leaders the co-operation, prayers and support of this body and our entire membership.

James W. Butler,
W. B. Godwin,
M. T. Felton.

Report of Committee on Missions and Evangelism.

We, your Committee on Missions and Evangelism, recognize and appreciate the good work being done in the various mission fields by our faithful missionaries backed up by the united efforts of the Church at large in supporting the cause. We appreciate the earnest efforts of our General Secretary, Rev. Dan T. Muse, in keeping the missionary activities of the Church constantly before the people.

We submit the following recommendations:

1. That fervent prayer be offered daily for our missionaries on the foreign fields as well as for those in the homeland.

2. That each pastor check his pastorate as to last year's work on foreign missions, and set out to make a definite improvement for the coming year.

3. We heartily endorse the penny per day plan for each member of the local churches and societies, and we urge that each pastor endeavor to keep this before his church.

4. That each pastor endeavor to be a source of missionary information to his congregation. Such information may be obtained in The Advocate each week, and also through direct correspondence with our missionaries on the fields, and by inviting the returned missionaries to your churches.

5. That missions and evangelism be presented at each of the Quarterly Conferences during the year.

6. In view of the fact that our last year's Minutes show that 20 per cent of our churches in the N. C. Conference contributed nothing at all for foreign missions, we strongly recommend that the Conference Superintendent make an investigation of this matter, and that the pastors over these charges seek to remedy this deplorable condition.

7. We recognize and appreciate the improvement along the line of evangelism evidenced by the fact that two Gospel tents have been purchased for special use in the bounds of the N. C. Conference. We recommend that this Conference elect a Conference evangelist, whose duty shall be to direct the work of evangelism within its bounds.

8. That a special fund be set apart in the Conference Treasury for the purpose of aiding in the evangelization of new territory within the bounds of the N. C. Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. Brooks,
T. O. Todd,
W. H. Turner.

Report of Committee on Finance.

We, your Committee on Finance, beg leave to submit the following report:

Realizing the impossibility of improving on God's financial plan and knowing that God will bless those that adhere to it, we therefore submit the following recommendations:

1. That all lay members pay tithes into the church treasury. Said tithes to be disbursed by the church official board.

2. That all ministers of the N. C. Conference patronize the Conference Treasury by paying one-half of their tithes into the Conference Treasury and that the Conference Board shall have the right to disburse said tithes except the provisions in this report.

3. That ten per cent of said tithes be used for the evangelization of needy fields. Especially to help start churches in new territory.

4. That this session make the following appropriations:
